

Alexander Graham Bell

Alexander Graham Bell, the inventor of the telephone, was born in Edinburgh, Scotland, on 3 March 1847. Later he moved to Ontario, Canada, and then to Boston in the United States. In 1876 he invented the telephone, an “electrical speech machine” as he called it.

All the words which you have to find in the crossword below are related to the world of telecommunication.

More information about Bell and his invention under <http://sln.fi.edu/franklin/inventor/bell.html> and <http://www.privateline.com/TelephoneHistory/History1.htm>.

Across:

- 1 A person who has invented a machine or another thing is an ... .
- 3 Today a lot of people have got a ... phone.
- 5 Before phone cards were introduced, you needed ..... if you wanted to make a phone call.
- 8 In Germany people usually say their name when they answer the phone, in England they say their ... .
- 9 Phone calls e.g. to the United States are made via ... .
- 11 The part of the telephone which you lift when your phone rings is called ... .
- 13 A message sent by your computer is an ... .
- 14 A letter sent by a device similar to a telephone is a ... .

Down:

- 2 A phone call within a country is a ... call.
- 3 Sometimes a phone call to somebody who is not at home is answered by an answering ... .
- 4 If you do not know somebody's phone number, you can look it up in the telephone ... .
- 6 A short message sent by your mobile phone is an ...
- 7 Alexander Graham ... was the inventor of the telephone.
- 10 The telephone number of a town is the call ... .
- 12 If you want to make a phone call from a public telephone booth, you need a phone ... .

Alexander Graham Bell

1 I N V E N T O R
		A				3 M O B I L E
	4 D	T				A
	I	I				5 C O I N S
	R	O				H
6 S	E	N				I			7 B
M	C	A				8 N U M B E R
9 S A T E L L I T E
	O								10 p
	11 R E C E I V E R
	Y	A				13 E M A I L
		R				F
		D				I
					14 F A X

