Basic classroom courses for teenagers and young adults (16+)

Schritte international

Target group: Adult and young adult learners (16+) throughout the world at elementary level (A1–B1).

Content: Each lesson of our new elementary course begins with an entertaining photo-story based on interesting topics, amusing stories and cultural background information. “Interludes” encourage learners to have fun with listening and reading texts that deal with intercultural relevant points of interest. Two volumes of the six-volume course lead up to levels A1, A2, and B1 respectively and prepare for the corresponding examinations. Each of the six stages is composed of a Coursebook–Workbook combination including an Audio-CD/CD-ROM with listening material and interactive practice for use with a PC.

Interactive Teacher’s Book

The interactive and user-friendly teacher’s handbook on DVD-ROM facilitates classwork preparation and goes far beyond a regular teacher’s handbook.

It contains methodical information on all tasks and exercises in the coursebook, all audio texts, numerous photocopyables with tests, dictation and reading texts, a vocabulary database, film sequences from the DVD with suggestions for use in the classroom and an exercise sheet generator to help you create extra exercise sheets for grammar and vocabulary tailored to fit the needs of your course without any fuss.

Volume 1 DVD-ROM	221851–4
Volume 2 DVD-ROM	221852–1

Target group: Seven- to eight-year-olds inside and outside of Germany who are learning German without prior knowledge of the language.

Content: Planetino adheres to the guidelines of the CEFR, concretely implements the portfolio approach, and leads in three volumes to level A1.

Every volume offers 5 modules, each arranged according to the same principle:

- 1-2 theme-oriented introductory comics based on already familiar structures
- 3-4 short lessons with 2-4 pages
- a one-page overview with grammar and common expressions

A play, cultural information with activity games, a chronological list of the active and passive vocabulary, and phonetic exercises complete the volume.

Following Planetino, work can easily be continued with Planet 2 and Planet 3 or with any other course suitable for youths.

Planet

Make Planet part of your teaching!

Target group: Teenagers with no prior knowledge of German.

Content: Planet is based thematically on the real world as experienced by German teenagers today and on the language they use. The 5–6-page chapters have been carefully structured. Pronunciation exercises and games for partner and classwork help to vary the materials. The course has a flat progression and takes students in three volumes through CEFR levels A1, A2, and B1. It also prepares them for the Fit in Deutsch 1, Fit in Deutsch 2, and Zertifikat Deutsch für Jugendliche examinations.

Available: Workbook, 2 Audio-CDs/Cassettes with listening texts, listening comprehension exercises and songs, as well as an Audio-CD/Cassette with pronunciation practice, a Teacher's Book, an Exercise-Generator on CD-ROM, Materials for Interactive Whiteboards and a DVD.

Planet-DVD

The DVD provides not only cultural information on the themes of hobbies, school, housing, shopping, sports, and 'my day', but also describes daily life situations in the lives of young people in funny, light acting scenes. This adds some reality to the classroom in an entertaining way. The acting scenes can be selected individually in any order.

Thus, the DVD supports teaching with »Planet« by adding fun and information. However, it is not required for teaching the course.

Exercise Generator – Übungsblätter per Mausklick

NEW

For all volumes

The CD-ROM contains reading texts and dialogues from all three volumes of the Planet course. Using these texts, the teacher is able to instantly generate additional exercise sheets for vocabulary and grammar or for reading comprehension using the exercise sheet generator.

CD-ROM 371678–1

Materials for Interactive Whiteboards

Target group: All courses working with Planet 1 and able to use Whiteboard technology.

The materials contain all the illustrations from the coursebook Planet 1 and a variety of templates (an email window, a clock, a mobile phone display, a timetable, Euro notes and coins, the alphabet, a jigsaw map of Germany, Austria and Switzerland, smileys, speech bubbles and many more ...) as well as one or two tasks linked to each lesson in the coursebook, specially adapted for interactive whiteboards and designed to encourage interaction amongst students.

With the help of the drawings and templates, pictures can be prepared in advance to fit the size of the board exactly. It is also possible to get students involved in the lesson and encourage them to react spontaneously and create new ideas themselves. The Planet Whiteboard materials present an additional opportunity for adapting lessons to suit learners' individual needs.

deutsch.com

Target group: Teenagers and young adults with no prior knowledge in Germany and abroad.

Content: deutsch.com stands for the idea of the CEFR – the basic leitmotif of multilingualism. Learning German happens “inside the heads” of students in a context of multilingualism. Therefore, the teaching and the learning of a language must be perceived within this context. The goal is to offer efficient as well as time-saving teaching and learning methods.

deutsch.com actively involves students in teaching as well as learning and offers a broad panorama of the lifestyles and realities of young people in Germany presented from surprising perspectives.

deutsch.com leads up to levels A1, A2, and B1 of the CEFR in three volumes and prepares students for the exams Fit in Deutsch 1 and 2 and Zertifikat Deutsch für Jugendliche.

Ideen

From the unusual to a personal experience

Target Group: Teenagers and young adults without previous knowledge in Germany and abroad.

Content: Ideen is a course that provides professional material for the particular challenges of teaching teenage classes. In making the transition from childhood to adulthood, the teenagers must newly define their own identity. Therefore everything in Ideen is streamlined to meet these requirements.

Ideen is built on texts far removed from teenage daily life, making it easier for teens to show interest in the subject matter. In the following sections, however, such subjects are brought into connection with the world of teenagers and simultaneously with the major teaching subjects. Thus, learning German becomes motivating and effective for teens.

Ideen leads up to levels A1, A2, and B1 of the CEFR in three volumes and prepares students for the exams Fit in Deutsch 1 and 2 and Zertifikat Deutsch für Jugendliche.

AusBlick

Target Group: Advanced teen students (knowledge of level B1), ages 13 to 18.

Concept: AusBlick offers a wealth of motivating topics especially directed at teens. Teenagers from German-speaking countries talk about themselves, their interests, and experiences. The texts are taken from the Internet, youth magazines, and young adult literature, and stimulate reading and listening. The course promotes independent student work: through tasks and exercises, through learning techniques and hints, through self-evaluation at the end of each lesson, and through a wide range of projects. AusBlick combines grammar and vocabulary work with the coursework: students learn to understand and use language rules through text reception.

AusBlick leads up to the following exams: Goethe-Zertifikat B1 and C1 (Zentrale Mittelstufenprüfung "neu"), Deutsches Sprachdiplom der Kultusministerkonferenz ("DSD I" and "DSD II") and final exams in German (Level B2) at schools in various states.

Lehr- und Übungsbuch der deutschen Grammatik – aktuell

Target group: Students at upper elementary and intermediate levels looking to acquire fundamental and comprehensive German skills.

Content: The clearly-arranged standard grammar Lehr- und Übungsbuch der deutschen Grammatik was designed with a modern, very learner-friendly and well-organized new layout. It provides updated and modernized exercises and sample sentences. The original structure and progression and the popular alternation between explanations and exercises remains intact.

The study goal is mastery of the language in spoken and written form. The grammar section is universally applicable and can be used for grammar exercises in course-work as well as for self-study.

An overview of conjugation and declination enables quick orientation for students.

Übungs-grammatik für die Mittelstufe

This new grammar practice book is designed to help students of German from intermediate to C1 level. Ideally suited for self-study, it follows modern teaching principles by dividing content into small steps and presenting them on facing pages: on the left the explanation and on the right the practice material. A variety of exercise types and authentic texts helps to keep interest levels high. This grammar practice book for intermediate level learners of German-as-a-Foreign-Language is a further development of the very successful em grammar and focuses on the needs of students living in Germany.

- excellent learner guidance for successful self-study
- extended learner autonomy through self-assessment
- removable answer key included

Schritte Grammatik

Target group:

Learners at level A1-B1

The Schritte Übungsgrammatik is an ideal extra for students using Schritte international. It can also be used independently of any other course material.

Content: This grammar practice book gives students an excellent overview of basic German grammar rules and structures and thanks to the answer key is suitable for self-study as well as for use as additional classroom material. Each unit covers a double page: based on an easy-to-remember introductory situation, the left-hand page explains the grammar it presents in simple language. The right-hand page offers practice material with a variety of different exercises. The juxtaposition of grammar rule and practice material in this way guarantees the user a high degree of clarity. Grammar structures and exercises are labelled according to level. The book is suitable for both beginners and students who have reached B1 level. It can also be used to prepare for A2/B1-level exams.

Krimis mit Carsten Tsara (Detective Stories)

A series with complete individual reading texts. The level of difficulty is marked in every booklet. Illustrations help reading comprehension. Each booklet offers single-language word explanations in the appendix plus exercises for reading comprehension and for developing reading strategies. An Audio-CD is available for every booklet which contains the complete listening version of the crime story.

Carsten Tsara is in his early 30ies, lacks acumen, and his memory is also only average. Not particularly good qualifications for a private detective, one would think. But he is one. He trusts his intuition and his motto is: an ounce of practise is worth a pound of theory.
