Dear Colleagues

We have just made another important addition to our homepage which gives you the opportunity of downloading and studying our advertising materials and printing them out for your customers. Next to our German Language Teaching Catalogue, we have included prospectuses and brochures that present and give detailed descriptions of individual courseware like Planetino or Ziel. You will also find brochures covering our readers series and our dictionary program - all of which will give your customers an excellent overview of what we have to offer. Your contacts at Hueber will of course send you any of these materials that you might require by normal post.

We wish you every success in putting them to good use.
