Quiz time!

Preparation:

Make one copy of the sheet for each student to hand out after the activity. Make one copy for each pair of students and cut up the different parts along the lines.

In class:

Get students into pairs and explain that they will do a quiz.

Write an example on the board, e.g. White Christmas / (sing) / by Bing Crosby and elicit the correct sentence: White Christmas was sung by Bing Crosby.

Give each pair a set of cut up sentences. Students work in pairs to build sentences from the cut up cards as in the example. The first pair to finish shouts "Bingo!" Each correct sentence is worth one point, and the first pair to finish gets an extra point. The pair with the most points wins a prize. Students read out their sentences, using the passive voice, and add up their points. Give the winning pair a prize, and give each student a copy of sheet 1.
