May 1 - International Workers' Day

Auch in vielen Städten Großbritanniens wird der Tag der Arbeit – International Workers' Day – mit zahlreichen Kundgebungen begangen. Die Wörter, die Sie in die Sätze unten einsetzen müssen, haben alle mit dem Begriff "Arbeit" zu tun. Wenn Sie die Wörter in die Kästchen eintragen, ergeben die blau unterlegten Buchstaben das Lösungswort. Es ist die englische Bezeichnung für die Organisationen, die hinter den Maikundgebungen stehen.

- 1- A person who flies an aeroplane is a
- 2- A person who works at the reception of a hotel is a
- 3- All people who work for a company are the ... of a company.
- 4- A person who studies at a university is a
- 5- When you work more hours than you have to work, you work
- 6- The people who work together with you in the same office or company are your
- 7- A person who works in a hospital is a
- 8- When you can start and finish work at different times, you work
- 9- A woman who takes care of her home and family is a
- 10-A person who repairs lamps and other electrical equipment is an
- 11-The money which you get for your job is your

Lösungswort:

May 1 - International Workers' Day

Lösung:

- 1- A person who flies an aeroplane is a pilot.
- 2- A person who works at the reception of a hotel is a receptionist.
- 3- All people who work for a company are the staff of a company.
- 4- A person who studies at a university is a student.
- 5- When you work more hours than you have to work, you work overtime.
- 6- The people who work together with you in the same office or company are your colleagues.
- 7- A person who works in a hospital is a nurse.
- 8- When you can start and finish work at different times, you work flexitime.
- 9- A woman who takes care of her home and family is a housewife.
- 10-A person who repairs lamps and other electrical equipment is an electrician.
- 11-The money which you get for your job is your salary.

