

Unit 9, lyrics “Can You Tell Me Where”

1

Excuse me, can you tell me
where to find a sweet darling?
Can you tell me the way to my true love? –

*No problem, take the Hogwarts Train.
It brings you up to Penny Lane.
From there, you'd better use your feet.
Walk all the way down Baker Street and straight on to Trafalgar Square.
Your true love must be there ... somewhere.*

Thanks a lot! And can you make a guess: How long does it take? –
*A hundred years or half a day ...
It's really very hard to say.*

2

Excuse me, can you tell me
where to find a sweet darling?
Can you tell me the way to my true love? –

*Go down the road, and when you meet
King Kong, turn into Bleecker Street.
Turn right and go to Central Park.
(And please don't whistle in the dark.)
From there you go on to the zoo:
And there's your love so sweet ... and true. –*

Thanks a lot! How kind you are!
But tell me: Is it very far? –

*Ten thousand miles or half a yard ...
It's hard to say, so very hard!*

3

Excuse me, can you tell me
where to find a sweet darling?
Can you tell me the way to my true love? –

*O yes, of course, that's easy, dear!
The subway station is right here.
Don't look at the PayPoint machine
but take the Yellow Submarine right up to Coronation Street.
And there's your love so true ... and sweet. –*

Thanks a lot! Good bye! But wait!
The cost, I hope, is not too great? –

*Five million pounds or two pounds ten ...
Come back next week, and ask again.
Come back next week, and ask again.
Come back next week, and ask again.*
