

Unit 12, video script

- Voice: So, Jim. It's your turn. You know the rules? You have 7 seconds to look at a photo of a desk. Then you have to tell me what's on the desk.
- Man: OK.
- Voice: Don't forget the colours! Then, let's start!
- Voice: OK, Jim. Go for it!
- Man: There's a big monitor in the centre of the desk and a keyboard too.
- Voice: What colour is the keyboard?
- Man: Black. And on the right there's some white paper with an orange pencil on it. On the left of the keyboard there's a coffee cup and a book and there's a mobile phone on the book. Oh and there are some sweets and there's some money too.
- Voice: And that's it?
- Man: Uh, yeah. I think so.
- Voice: OK, thank you. That's 9 points for the items and, well, the pencil's not orange, it's green, so 2 points for the colours. That's 11 points for you, Jim!
- Man: Thank you!
- Voice: So, Cathy is next.
- Voice: So, Cathy. It's your turn. You know the rules. You have 7 seconds to look at a photo of a desk. Then you have to tell me what's on the desk. Don't forget the colours!
- Woman: I think I'm good at colours.
- Voice: OK, here's the photo!
- Voice: So, Cathy. Go for it!
- Woman: OK, there's a black monitor and a black keyboard in the centre of the desk. There's a plant next to the monitor. On the left of the keyboard there's a coffee cup and a book. There's a black mobile phone on the book. Oh, and there's a rubber. And on the other side of the keyboard there's some white paper and a green pencil and next to the paper there are some pens, I think there were five, right? And the colours, um, red, blue, green and black.
- Voice: And that's it?
- Woman: Yes!
- Voice: OK, that's fourteen points for the items and nine for the colours. Congratulations! 23 points! You're today's winner!
- Woman: Yes!
