(I have) twen-ty-three unc-les and thir-ty-five aunts and nie-ces and some-one to talk with. You al-ways have some-one to talk a - bout. You al-ways have neph-ews no end, and cous-ins and grand-par-ents more than I want - but what I don't some-one to walk with. I have a ve - ry big fa - mi - ly: Two fa-thers have is a friend. A friend is so love-ly, a friend is so nice. To have a nice and three mo-thers. We're all to - gether in a love- ly house with nine sis-ters and friend is great. I'd give you my fami - ly for one good friend - or two, or sev-en-teen broth-ers. I have
