Can You Tell Me Where

♩=154

F C G C   F   G   am

1. Ex - cuse me, can you tell me where to find a sweet dar-ling? Can you
(2.)   cuse me, can you tell me where to find a sweet dar-ling? Can you
(3.)   cuse me, can you tell me where to find a sweet dar-ling? Can you

F   C G   C F C G C F

tell me the way   to my true love? –   No prob-lem, take the tell me the way   to my true love? –   Go down the road, and tell me the way   to my true love? –   O yes, of course, that's

C   em   dm

Hog - warts Train. It brings you up to Pen - ny Lane. From there, you'de bet - ter when you meet King Kong, turn in - to Blee - cker Street. Turn right and go to ea - sy, dear! The sub - way sta - tion is right here. Don't look at the Pay

G   C   A7

use your feet. Walk all the way down Ba - ker Street and straight on to Tra-Cen - tral Park. (And please don't whist - le in the dark.) From there you go on
- Point mach - ine but take the Yel - low Sub - ma - rine right up to Co - ro-

dm   fm   G   C   C7 F

- fal - gar Square. Your true love must be there … some - where. – Thanks a lot! And to the zoo: And there's your love so sweet … and true. – Thanks a lot! How
- na - tion Street. And there's your love so true … and sweet. – Thanks a lot! Good-

C   G   am   F

can you make a guess: How long does it take? – A hund - red years or kind you are! But tell me: Is it ve - ry far? – Ten thou - sand miles or
- bye! But wait! The cost, I hope, is not too great? – Five mil - lion pounds or

G   [1.2.] dm   G   C   F C G half a day … It's real - ly ve - ry hard to say. – 2. Ex-half a yard … It's hard to say, so very hard! 3. Ex-two pounds ten … Come

[3.] dm   G7   C   dm   G7   C

back next week, and ask a-gain … Come back next week, and ask a-gain … Come back next week, and ask a - gain …

F   G   C

3