

Unit 2, lyrics “When I Grow Up”

When I grow up I'm gonna buy a hot air balloon
and then I'm going to fly round the world.
I'm gonna go to Southhampton, to Glasgow and Cork
and also visit the old and New York.

When I grow up I'm going to live all my dreams,
though now people might call me naïve.

I'm gonna show them I can make it, though hard it may seem,
but all that matters is that you believe.

When I grow up I'm going to meet a nice prince and together we can sing and dance.
I'm gonna learn to play the piano and be a big star
and then impress all my family and friends.

When I grow up I'm going to live all my dreams,
though now people might call me naïve.

I'm gonna show them I can make it, though hard it may seem,
but all that matters is that you believe.
Yes, all that matters is that you believe.
