

The right person for the job!

Read the texts about two job candidates and complete the CVs.

Joe Brown is American. He was born in Boston, USA on October 5, 1965. He went to primary school in the USA from 1970 to 1976. After two years at middle school, he went to a top secondary school and finished in 1982. He went to university from 1982 to 1988. He studied biology and chemistry there. For the next ten years he worked as a bio-chemist for a big US firm. But now he wants to change his job and his life. He wants more time for his family and his hobbies, sports and music. So he wants to teach biology and English at a private school.

Mary McBride is Scottish but she was born in Frankfurt, Germany on February 23, 1970. She went to primary school in Frankfurt from 1976 to 1980. Then she went to secondary school and finished in 1988. She was very good at biology. She went to Scotland in 1989 and worked with young children in a nature camp. She went on nature walks with them and started a reading club. Then she went back to Frankfurt and did a teacher-training course in biology and English from 1991 to 1996. After that she worked as a waitress. But now she wants a "real job." She wants to teach biology and English in a private school. Her hobbies are hiking and reading.

Here is the job advert. What do you think? Who is your favourite candidate for the job?

English/biology teacher

We are a small private school in Canada. Looking for a teacher who loves children, nature and the English language. Teaching experience welcome but not a "must."
