

Tom's weekend

Read the text and fill in the gaps with some or any.

Tom's typical weekend is very relaxing. On Saturday he is out and about in town. He usually goes shopping in the morning, has lunch at a good restaurant, and then goes to the gym to work out. In the late afternoon he meets his friends and they all go to the cinema or to a bar or club for _____ drinks. He usually stays at home on Sunday. He listens to music, reads a good book, goes for a short walk, plays computer games and watches _____ TV programmes in the evening.

But last weekend was different. Last weekend Tom had _____ guests from Germany. He didn't have _____ time to watch TV or go to the gym. On Saturday morning he and his guests walked through the town centre and had coffee at a nice street café. In the afternoon they went to a department store. His guests wanted to buy _____ presents for their family and friends in Germany. Then they went to a great Indian restaurant. In the evening Tom wanted to take them to a concert but he couldn't get _____ tickets. So they went to a hot club! On Sunday they visited the cathedral in the morning and went to _____ museums in the afternoon. They had dinner and _____ drinks at a typical British pub and then Tom drove his guests to the airport. On Monday Tom was very tired all day! Usually Tom meets _____ friends at the neighbourhood bar on Monday evening after work, but on this Monday he didn't meet _____ friends or go to _____ bars. He went to bed very early.

Tick the statements that are true.

1. Tom's weekends are usually relaxing.
2. Tom usually stays at home on Saturday.
3. Tom didn't stay at home last Saturday.
4. Tom didn't watch any TV programmes last weekend.
5. There aren't any Indian restaurants in the town where Tom lives.
6. There are some hot clubs in Tom's town.
7. Tom got some concert tickets for Saturday night.
8. They went to some museums on Sunday.
9. On Monday Tom didn't go to work.
10. On Monday evening Tom met some friends at a bar.

Tom's weekend

Answers

Tom's typical weekend is very relaxing. On Saturday he is out and about in town. He usually goes shopping in the morning, has lunch at a good restaurant, and then goes to the gym to work out. In the late afternoon he meets his friends and they all go to the cinema or to a bar or club for some drinks. He usually stays at home on Sunday. He listens to music, reads a good book, goes for a short walk, plays computer games and watches some TV programmes in the evening.

But last weekend was different. Last weekend Tom had some guests from Germany. He didn't have any time to watch TV or go to the gym. On Saturday morning he and his guests walked through the town centre and had coffee at a nice street café. In the afternoon they went to a department store. His guests wanted to buy some presents for their family and friends in Germany. Then they went to a great Indian restaurant. In the evening Tom wanted to take them to a concert but he couldn't get any tickets. So they went to a hot club! On Sunday they visited the cathedral in the morning and went to some museums in the afternoon. They had dinner and some drinks at a typical British pub and then Tom drove his guests to the airport. On Monday Tom was very tired all day! Usually Tom meets some friends at the neighbourhood bar on Monday evening after work, but on this Monday he didn't meet any friends or go to any bars. He went to bed very early.

1. Tom's weekends are usually relaxing. (true)
2. Tom usually stays at home on Saturday. (false)
3. Tom didn't stay at home last Saturday. (true)
4. Tom didn't watch any TV programmes last weekend. (true)
5. There aren't any Indian restaurants in the town where Tom lives. (false)
6. There are some hot clubs in Tom's town. (true)
7. Tom got some concert tickets for Saturday night. (false)
8. They went to some museums on Sunday. (true)
9. On Monday Tom didn't go to work. (false)
10. On Monday evening Tom met some friends at a bar. (false)